

Bharati Vidyapeeth [Deemed to be University]

College of Ayurved, Pune-43

Student Support cell activity: Report

Awareness lecture : Introduction to Blood Banking

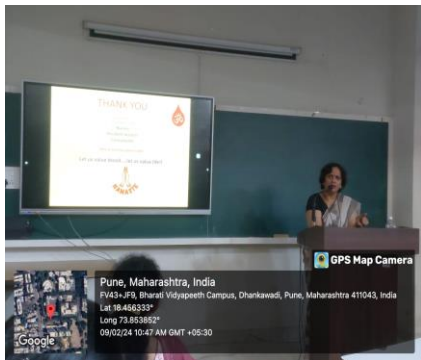

Student support cell of BVDU, College of Ayurved has organized lecture on Introduction to Blood Banking (w.r.t Janakalyana Blood Bank Pune) on 9.02.24 for undergraduate students, in Bharati Vidyapeeth [DU] Ayurved College, Pune.

Mrs. Manasi Thakur P.R Executive Janakalyana Blood Bank Pune, had delivered her speech on various activities actually taking place inside the Blood Bank right from the requisition of sample. She emphasized on the importance and methods of Safe Blood transfusion techniques and crucialness of pre transfusion testing. She enlightened the importance of blood components separation and blood irradiation. Usefulness of Cold Chain and different important machineries; NAT machine, ELISA machine, Thawing bath technique machine for Plasma, Centrifuge machine was explored in her speech. Every concept was explained in a student friendly way and with ample of evidence of cases she had experienced.

Students had a feast of knowledge regarding Blood Banking and they learnt various important facts related to blood donation, its need and importance of its correct techniques.

Dr. Vasudha Asutkar, Student Support Cell in-charge had introduced Mrs. Manasi Thakur Dr. Madhuri Pawar, Secretary of student support cell had felicitated and expressed her deep thanks to the invited speaker and students of IInd year BAMS.

Student support cell coordinators:

Dr. Madhuri Pawar

Dr. Vasudha Asutkar